AGA Des Moines Chapter Lunch n' Learn and Webinar March 24, 2021 12:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. Online Minutes

Due to COVID-19 and restrictions on social gatherings, the Lunch n' Learn was held virtually through the Des Moines Chapter's Zoom account, with a limit of 500 attendees.

Chapter President Randy Lagerblade opened the meeting and welcomed everyone.

- March is CGFM Month. Normally the Des Moines Chapter of AGA provides pizza and cupcakes for CGFM Month, however, since this year's Lunch n' Learn is virtual, there will be a drawing from the participants to see who wins a red CGFM mask. The mask will be mailed to the winner of the drawing.
- AGA Memberships are up for renewal. Everyone is encouraged to renew their memberships online as soon as possible. All non-members should consider joining AGA, as the benefits of membership greatly outweigh the cost.
- National AGA is running a special for CGFM Month. Registration to the program is only $21 during the month of March. This is a steep discount compared to what it normally costs to register.

Randy introduced guest speaker Jesse Martinez, OCIO. The topic was Cybersecurity. Attendance: 16 members, 3 non-members, 1 speaker.

The Lunch n' Learn was followed by the webinar: Building Organizational Resilience through the Integration of Cybersecurity Risk Management (CRM) with Enterprise Risk Management. The webinar was offered for individual viewing to 30 attendees instead of being held in a group setting.
